Profile

Systems engineer and technology consultant who turns business processes into working software. Since 2020 I have led Odoo implementations end to end at GRUPO SOLUTECNO, across every release from version 11 to 19: requirements analysis, custom modules in Python and OWL, data migrations, FastAPI integrations and go-live. I specialise in accounting and payroll and have implemented management and inventory systems for large operations. I also build my own products, like LexOS, a virtual lawyer built on the complete case law of El Salvador.
